

The Week In Astoria Society

All Items of Social or Personal Nature Will Please Be Sent to Miss Albert, The Astorian Office, Phone Main 661. No Communication Will Be Received Later Than Ten O'clock Saturday Morning, Except in Case of an Event Occurring Later Than That.

The Clover Club members held a very enjoyable weekly meeting on Tuesday afternoon of this week with Mrs. J. J. Wyard on Seventh street.

Mrs. Howard L. Knight pleasantly entertained the members of the D. M. C. D. Club at her home on Eighth and Exchange streets on Tuesday evening.

A very delightful meeting of the Assembly Club was held on Thursday evening of this week at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher on Franklin avenue. Cards are the form of amusement selected for the fortnightly meetings of this club but no prizes are awarded.

Mrs. Herman Wise and daughter, Miss Louise, and son, Sam, arrived home on Thursday evening from a month's visit with friends in Chico, California.

Miss Ada Jordan left for Portland on Thursday morning for a month's visit with friends.

Miss Anna Utzinger and Mr. H. M. Wheatly, both of Seaside, Oregon, were united in marriage on Thursday, March 4th. The Rev. William Seymour Short, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, officiating. The happy couple will make their future home at Seaside.

Mrs. Victor Brandt of Portland was a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. C. Anderson, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Palmberg and sons will leave on Tuesday morning for a year's trip through Europe.

Mrs. Mary Craig and son, Jene, of Ilwaco, Washington, have been the guests for several days of Mrs. Taylor on Commercial street.

Brigadier-General Hoyt, commander of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias was the guest of the Astoria Commandery No. 1 on Tuesday evening, leaving the next morning on board the Sue H. Elmore for Tillamook.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. gave a delightful "Whist Party" on Thursday evening in Carnahan's Hall on Exchange street. There was a very good attendance, ten tables being filled with players, all enjoying immensely the entertainment offered. At 10:30 the prizes were awarded, Mrs.

Thurston winning the ladies' first prize and Mrs. Berstedt the consolation prize. Mr. Mehan was the fortunate winner of the gentlemen's first prize and Mr. McClosky the consolation prize. Later a dainty lunch of coffee and cake was served at the card tables by the ladies in charge. The ladies of the G. A. R. find these entertainments have become so popular with the many who attend, they are planning to make them bi-monthly affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McShatko, of the A. & C. R. R., are week-end guests of friends in Portland.

On last Saturday evening Mrs. N. B. Burkholder entertained at her home on Commercial street in honor of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Ashley, of Brookfield. Five hundred was played, Mrs. Daniel Gamble and Mr. George Morton winning the prizes. Several musical selections were rendered by the Misses Goddard, Morton and Mr. C. Crow, after which an excellent luncheon was served.

Mr. Phil McDonough of Bear Cliff, was an Astoria visitor on Saturday.

Mrs. J. E. Higgins returned on Tuesday from Palo Alto, Cal., after an extended visit with her daughter, Miss Winnifred who is a student at Stanford University.

Mrs. E. P. Noonan, Mrs. James Kearney and Miss O'Connor were the hostesses on Tuesday evening for a very successful "Social Evening" given by the young people of the Catholic Church in St. Mary's Hall on Grand avenue—the last social to be held before the beginning of Lent. The attendance was large, 16 tables were filled with jolly players. At the distribution of the prizes Miss Mary Carter was the fortunate winner of the ladies' first prize, Miss Beckner the consolation prize, Mr. Leon Dow the gentlemen's first prize, and Mr. Langford the consolation prize. Lunch was then served and the floor cleared, with the Columbia orchestra furnishing excellent music, dancing was engaged in for the remainder of the evening.

Mrs. Ruby Fernald went to Portland Saturday for an over Sunday visit with Mrs. Robert Dunham.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church was charmingly entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. O. B. Estes at her home on Commercial street. During the business meeting, officers were elected for the coming term, Mrs. Owen, president; Miss Pearl Estes, vice-president; Mrs. Whitney, secretary, and Mrs. Huntmeir, treasurer. The entertainment was rather in the form of a "farewell" for four of the members who are leaving town, Mrs. Graham, the retiring president who is preparing to move to Seattle to live. Mrs. C. G. Palmberg, who leaves on Tuesday morning for a year's stay in Stockholm, Sweden; Mrs. Lynch who goes to Tillamook to reside, and Mrs. Christensen, who leaves shortly for an extended visit with friends in Modesto, California. During the study hour the subject under discussion was the missionary work being carried on in foreign countries. Later dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, the Misses Estes.

The reception and banquet tendered the Clatskanie debating team by the Astoria high school on Friday evening at the Hotel Occident was an elaborate and successful affair fully one hundred and twenty guests sitting down at the tables which fairly groaned under the good things heaped upon them. The decorations were quite artistic, cut flowers and class colors predominating. Prof. Clarke acted as toastmaster for the evening and in a happy vein welcomed the visitors all present standing to drink to the "success of the Columbia." Miss Emma C. Warren delighted her hearers with her graceful response to the toast "Our High School." Rev. William S. Gilbert wittily and humorously responded to the toast "Our Boys," calling upon all the girls who did not want a boy, to stand, needless to say, all the girls stood, much to the merriment of the other guests. Judge Taylor responded with "Our Girls" and gratified the girls immensely by refuting many of the assertions made by Mr. Gilbert he sat down amid loud applause. The boys then showed their appreciation of Mr. Gilbert's address by giving their high school yell "Rah! Rah! Rah! Gilbert," the girls answered with "Rah! Rah! Rah! Taylor." Prof. A. A. De Cou of the Oregon University responded to "The Winners" with telling effect to which all present listened with rapt attention. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Powell of Columbia county took the floor in behalf of "The Losers," and in a brief but brilliant address claimed the attention of all. Prof. Collins of the Clatskanie high school scored a decided success in his handling of the "Battle for Supremacy, Its Cause, Its Effect," and Prof. Garmen's response to "Columbia's Prospect of Reaching the Finals," received vociferous applause. In her usual, sweet, girlish, straight-forward manner, Miss Birdie Wise gave her response to "Our Opponents," who have now become our friends. Hon. John H. Smith in a scholarly address full of sound common sense and good advice responded to "Things Worth While" pleasing his hearers greatly with his able handling of the subject. The "we sma" hours had arrived before the banqueters thought of departure and after offering the Clatskanie delegation the heartiest of congratulations and well wishes all went home in a happy mood. The Astoria high school is to be congratulated not only on the outcome of the debate but on the successful management of the reception and on the courteous, kind and hospitable treatment accorded the visitors.

The residence of Mrs. L. Lawrey on Franklin avenue was the meeting place this week for the Mamsook Tepichines Club.

The Thursday Afternoon Club members were delightfully entertained this week at the home of Mrs. R. E. Carruthers on Jerome avenue. Cards were played, Mrs. Edwin Blair winning the prize.

The officers of the revenue cutter McCulloch gave a dinner party on board Friday evening to a number of invited guests.

Mrs. O. M. Simington and Mrs. J. T. N. Calloway entertained the members of the Euchre Club on Friday evening at the Calloway home on Seventeenth street. The decorations were beautiful showing a profusion of Oregon grape, violets and daffodils. Mrs. Carlton B. Allen and Mrs. Nelson B. Troyer were the winners at cards on this occasion. During the evening delicious refreshments were served.

McGregor's Hall on Thirty-seventh street was the scene of a very enjoyable dancing party on Tuesday evening. Several young ladies of East Astoria acted as hostesses.

The Sons of Hermans Lodge entertained the members of the Queen Louise Lodge on Tuesday night in the A. O. U. W. hall with a "whist party," 25 tables being filled with players. At 10:30 the floor was cleared and dancing engaged in for the remainder of the evening. Those in attendance were the families and friends of the lodge members and all present had a most enjoyable time. An excellent lunch was served during the evening.

Mrs. M. T. Brooks entertained the members of the Pastime Euchre Club at her home on Exchange street on Tuesday afternoon of this week. The winners at cards on this occasion were Mrs. R. E. Carruthers and Mrs. R. E. Howes.

Mrs. William Werthes entertained the members of the Royal Neighbors at her home on Commercial street on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

The East Astoria Social Club members met with Mrs. Graham on Exchange street on Monday afternoon.

Capt. and Mrs. William Kessel, who have been sojourning the Astoria since the wreck of the Emily Reed left yesterday for San Francisco.

Dr. and Mrs. Tuttle of Ft. Columbia were Astoria visitors Friday.

The Ladies Aid Society of the English Lutheran Church met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Victor Hermann at her residence on Harrison Avenue. The ladies are making preparations for holding a Bazaar and Social early in April and after spending some time at their fancy work they were served by Mrs. Hermann with a dainty lunch.

Rev. C. C. Rarick was a Portland passenger on Thursday.

The Dorcas Society of the First Lutheran Church held a very successful and enjoyable Social and Apron Sale on Friday evening in the Church parlors. A brief but interesting musical and literary program was rendered and an excellent lunch served to the many who were in attendance. All present thoroughly appreciated the entertainment provided and a neat sum was realized from the sale.

Gateway Rebekah Lodge held its regular bi-monthly meeting on Friday Evening in the I. O. O. F. Lodge rooms. Two ladies were elected to membership in the Degree, Miss Kinsely by card from the Heppner, Oregon lodge and Miss Hannah Asp by Initiation. The Rebekah District Convention will meet at Rainier on April 7th and on Thursday evening April 9th the Astoria lodge of Rebekah's will be honored by a visit from Emma Galloway President of the Rebekah Assembly.

Preparations for the reception of the distinguished visitor are under way and the floor work will be put on for her approval. The team will meet on Monday night in the I. O. O. F. Lodge rooms for drill.

An illustrated lecture, dealing with improvements needed at the mouth of the Columbia river was given on Wednesday evening of this week at the Astoria Theater by Hon. G. S. Shepherd, who is a candidate for Congress. Mr. Shepherd was greeted by a large audience who greatly appreciated his address.

A grand masked skating carnival is announced to take place on next Tuesday evening at the Skating Rink.

Mr. R. E. Elvers, for two years manager of the Astoria Theater, left on Saturday for Seattle, from whence he will engage in other theatrical ventures.

The Suomi Temperance Society gave a ball on Saturday evening in the Suomi hall in Uniontown, McCrosky's orchestra furnishing the music.

The old-fashioned sheet and pillow case dancing party given by the Girls' Glee club on last Saturday night in the National Association hall of Uppertown was a very successful event. The hall was decorated very artistically with festoons of red and yellow, the Leap Year colors and strings of red and yellow hearts running around the room, while immense hearts of the two colors adorned the walls. The balcony was designated as "Lovers' Roost" and at midnight a sumptuous supper was served there by the young ladies in charge. Mr. Weston had charge of the floor and ably discharged the duties of manager. A moonlight waltz was one of the innovations introduced during the evening and the dancers in their ghostly garments cast a spell over the spectators. Fully 250 couples were present and joined in the dancing and thoroughly enjoyed the evening and all hope that the rumor of a dance to be given on St. Patrick's Day will materialize.

Will lady who bought the cream cake at the St. Agnes' Guild sale two weeks ago please return the plate to Miss Crang's Art Store.

The very best board to be obtained in the city is at "The Occident Hotel." Rates very reasonable.

Fat Defeating Extraordinary

MARGARET NOLLY

Slender Margare Knolly, now, if you please. The fascinating leading lady of the Bijou, now more fascinating than ever, astonished all her friends on Broadway the other day by presenting to their admiring gaze a svelt and willowy form in place of the plump, not to say fat, outlines with which gaily sailed away to new triumphs and foreign shore last January. After a good deal of diplomatic cross examination from interested fat acquaintances the secret was cautiously whispered to a few dear friends, with the result that everybody knows it now. It was not exercise, nor fasting, nor sea air, nor worry about her new venture that had brought about this wonderful willowy change in the charming Margaret; no, none of these; nothing but a simple mixture which all good druggists are familiar with and can supply at small cost, to-wit: One-half ounce Marmola, one-half ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and three and one-half ounces of Syrup Simplex. "Grown folks need a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime," explained the now slender Margaret. "It is simply wonderful. It takes off the fat quickly, as much as a pound a day, and keeps it off. You can eat what you like, too. In that respect it is unlike anything of the kind I ever heard of, and besides it has another splendid feature—it is entirely harmless, and will not cause wrinkles. I think it is about as essential a toilet article for the woman who is fat and wants to get thinner as face powder. In order to get the best results, however, you should buy the Marmola in the original package and mix it in with the other two ingredients after you get home."

MISS JEANETTE CAREW

In the Role of Bunco in "No Mother to Guide Her."—Astoria Theater, Sunday, March 8.

Nothing but unstinted praise has come from those who have attended a performance of "No Mother to Guide Her." Those who have seen it will surely want to see it again, and those who have not, will undoubtedly avail themselves of the opportunity tonight, Sunday March 8th, at the Astoria Theater. They will have a chance to witness a clever drama, interpreted by an unusually strong company, headed by Miss Jeanette

Carew. Miss Carew is one of the coming comedienne and her personal magnetism instantly wins her audiences. The press last season could not say enough in praise of Miss Carew's work, but she deserves all of her success for a more honest and conscientious worker would be hard to find. She is such a dear sweet little woman and admirably fitted for the part of "Bunco" in "No Mother to Guide Her."

Mrs. M. T. Brooks entertained the
